

MEMORANDUM

November 13, 1963

TO: Larry O'Brien

FROM: Mike Manatos

One of Senator McGee's interns was assigned to the Legislative Research Section in the Capitol Building. He overheard a telephone call from Senator Keating of New York requesting a search of records to endeavor to pinpoint the President's personal schedule during the Cuban crisis from October 21st to November 1st.

He did not learn the purpose of this inquiry, but suspects Keating is up to no good.
